Application Process and Timeline -----

1. The Transportation Application is good for one school year. Parents must submit a new application each year.
2. All requests are processed first-come, first-served and are based on the space available on existing routes.
 - o [Note: Students will only be assigned to existing bus stops & routes; buses will not be re-routed to accommodate requests.]
3. The school will review applications in the order they are received. Once reviewed, the parent will be contacted.
4. Pick Up & Drop Off locations will be determined by Administration. Changes will not be allowed without prior notice and approved by the Administration.

School Bus Rules -----

1. Every student is required to remain seated at their assigned seats at all times.
2. No food will be allowed on the bus.
3. No profanity or worldly music is allowed on the bus. (We are a Christian School).
4. Students are required to respect the driver, any staff member, and each other at all times.
5. Students will not be allowed to ride the bus without wearing the uniform at the time of pick up.
6. Cell Phone, Devices and prohibited items are not allowed in the bus.
7. If the parent or student representative does not arrive on time at the drop off stop, ITCA reserves the right to cancel the service.
8. All students are required to follow these rules at all times. Not following will cause a loss of privilege to ride the bus.
