Application Process and Timeline -----

1. Routes, Fees, Schedules and Bus Rules are provided to all students by the school office.
2. Bus or Van Transportation will be provided for a fee to students who need it.
3. All requests are processed first-come, first-served, based on space available on existing routes.
4. Pick up/drop off locations are determined by Administration.
5. Buses may not be rerouted to accommodate requests.
6. Parents will submit a Transportation Application for each student, which will be reviewed in the order received.
7. Applications are valid for one school year. Parents must submit a new application each school year.
8. The first route will leave at 2:30 PM from Monday to Thursday, and on Fridays, it will leave at 1:30 PM.

School Bus Rules -----

1. Students must be outside on time at their assigned pick-up location.
2. Every student is required to remain seated in their assigned seats at all times.
3. No food will be allowed on the bus.
4. No profanity or worldly music is allowed on the bus. (We are a Christian School).
5. Students are required to respect the driver, any staff member, and each other at all times.
6. Students will not be allowed to ride the bus without wearing the uniform at the time of pick up.
7. Pick-up and Drop-off locations will be selected on the Transportation Application. Changes will not be allowed without prior notice.
8. Cell Phones, Devices and prohibited items are not allowed in the bus.
9. If the parent or student representative does not arrive on time at the drop off stop, ITCA reserves the right to cancel the service.
10. All students are required to follow these rules at all times. Repeated infractions will cause a loss of privilege to ride the bus.
